SOCIAL EVENTS

PORT HINCHINBROOK RESORT 28 - 29 AUGUST 2010-09-10

What a great weekend had by all! Travelling north were Jan and Reg Fels, Sam and Coral Galea and Keith and Judy Metcalfe. Travelling south were David and Wendy Anderson, John and Monica Baker, Jim and Elma Raw, and Ann McInnes and Kim Paranthoene. Travelling west were Frank and Glenys Munis. Neville Walker, who is lucky enough to live in this little paradise, joined us.

We arrived at Cardwell at the same time and had lunch on the foreshore.

Lunch on the Cardwell esplanade

There were spectacular birds on the beach, of the feathered kind of course.

These likely lads skirted around the perimeter and polished off the morsels thrown in their direction.

After checking into the Port Hinchinbrook Resort, some of us retired for a siesta, others caught up on the latest coming and goings. David and Wendy set to fish, but with no bites turned to turtle spotting. We gathered at the Restaurant on Saturday night - nothing beats good food, cold drinks and great company.

Neville Walker kindly invited us to join him at his residence, where he and Colin hosted a beautiful breakfast in the rainforest. Neville has a beautiful garden that is visited by all sorts of creatures - flying, hopping, feathered, scaled - you name it. Reg was leading the way to Neville's place. Now while it will not be said that he lost his bearings, the road he led us on past some beautiful vistas of the mountains clad in low lying clouds.

Thank you Neville for making us feel so welcome. According to accounts from Neville, we would not have reach the highway and the heavens opened up, and they received about 100 mms of rain.

This was welcomed by Dave and Wendy as they do not get enough rain in Milla Milla!!
