BIVOUAC JUNCTION WEEKEND 30/31st May & 1st June 2014

Members who travelled up on Friday 30th May met at the Stuart Hotel (Reg & Jan in the Toyota Hilux with tent and tables etc etc), (Laurie & Margaret in the Toyota Prado) and (Peter in the Holden Statesman), sadly NOT A JAG IN SIGHT.

Once we arrived and booked in (ie. after Reg and the Caretaker had a few words) we proceeded to unpack, set up camp and organise the fire place. Then it was time to boil the billy and have a well earned cuppa and snack, after which followed a "Nanny Nap" for some of us that is. Laurie decided his time was better spent doing some housework with the broom first.

A short spell to look around the place & it was then time to have a few drinks and get the BBQ on the go – (Steak, chops, sausages), all well cooked by our self named chef "Peter".

Once our tea was over and the bellies full, we sat around talking and enjoying a few drinks and nibbles until it was time to turn in for the night.

Saturday morning soon came around and with our fire re-kindled the chef "Peter" cooked up bacon, sausages & eggs, and we all enjoyed a lovely hearty breakfast before welcoming some more arrivals, Marcia & Ted in the first to be seen JAG. After unpacking and settling into their cabin, Marcia & Ted set up our seven hole golf course which included hills, bush turkey holes large and small, rocks, thistles, bindies and a variety of kangaroo & turkey poo etc (even a dead smelly snake). It should have been called the "The course from hell", (Greg Norman would not have had a chance). However in spite of the challenges we teed off (using only putters) and on the 5th hole Ray Zapp..... landed an impossible "hole in one" and after receiving loud applause and screaming from fellow competitors, Ray took a bow and said it was easy, ("Eat your heart out Tiger ")

The ladies got into the swing of things with their sexy Jag lingerie

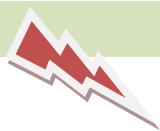

We all managed to struggle through our 7 holes of thirsty and challenging golf, and prizes were awarded accordingly (Laurie for best score, Julie for the worst score, Ryu for most improved and Ray for the unbelievable hole in one.

While all this was going on our "Reg" was busy cooking our evening meal on the open fire (corned beef, cabbage, potatoes, pumpkin and his special damper and Julie cooked a beautiful white sauce later. Once we had a few more drinks to wash down the hard game of golf, we were treated to some beautiful entres made by Ryu and Jim and then onto the main course of corned beef and veges, damper with butter. Somehow most of us kept a little stomach room aside, and then we tucked in to sweets (trifle, pineapple tart, caramel tart, apple pudding & custard) and everyone expressed a hearty thanks to Reg and the ladies for the excellent meal. We enjoyed a few more drinks after tea and the usual chatter etc, but as most of us were full as f....s, worn out and tired we made it an early night to bed. Sunday morning we enjoyed another great breakfast cooked by Peter and then it was time to pack up and be out by 10am.

All in all a wonderful weekend, good company, good food, good venue and a pleasant drive home.

By Peter & Marcia
