SOCIAL EVENTS

KURRAMINE BEACH Sat/Sun 25/26th October 2014

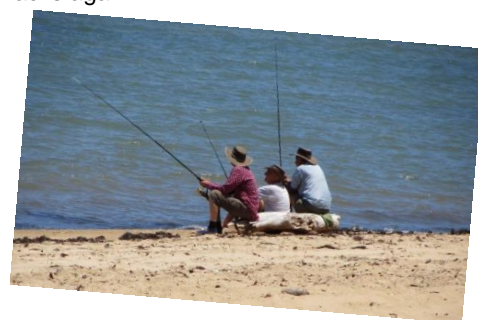

Some members who attended the Kurramine Beach trip left on the Friday in their own time to enjoy an extra day and night, and the rest of us from the Townsville area departed from Yabulu Service Stn as organised on Saturday morning.

Our first stop-over was at beautiful Cardwell beach front for a deserving smoko, rest the Jags, stretch the legs and water the horse. We enjoyed a smoko definitely fit for Kings, which included sweets, sandwiches and lots of Ryu's very tasty spring rolls etc etc etc.

We arrived at the King Reef Resort, Kurramine Beach around midday, and after booking in we found Ray & Julie relaxing by the pool. Jim & Ryu had one of the lovely villas on the beach front, so we all gathered on the front patio for a catch-up & cold drink and also got stuck into Ryu's beautiful snacks again.

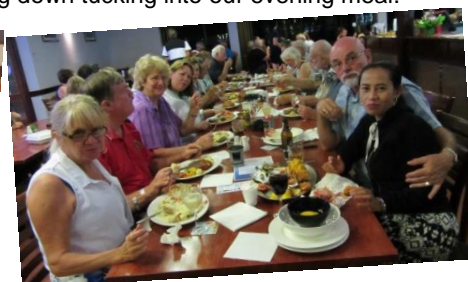

Members spent the afternoon catching up with others over a few drinks on the beach front patio of the Hotel, while Wendy, David & Jim did some fishing and others had a rest or a look around the resort and checked out the new Jag edition to the Club. (Warren Black's 1977 blue XJC12 Coupe)

The afternoon passed very quickly and in no time we were all sitting down tucking into our evening meal.

The next morning it was get your own breakfast, pack up, say our goodbye's and hit the road again. Ray & Julie escorted a few of us to a couple of the lovely beaches in the area before leaving, and then it was the usual stop-over at Frosty Mango for Reg's must-have icecream. Once again a truly lovely weekend with friends and enjoying our Jags.
